BORELIIANS TAKE TOP HONOURS AT 2015 ACT-CO AWARDS

Borelians "The Drawer Boy" - October 2015

Borelians Community Theatre continued to prove that we are a force to reckon with at the annual Association of Community Theatre Central Ontario (ACT-CO) Thea Awards Gala. This year, two Borelians productions were recognized with multiple nominations and several awards.

Our production of Michael Healey's, "The Drawer Boy" took top honours this year by winning Best Production of a Drama and gathering recognition for director Helen Coughlin, who was nominated for Best Director, as well as Joanne Norman, who received a nomination for Best Lighting Design. Actors John Lunman and David Geene were each nominated in the Best Actor category; however it was David Geene who ended up winning the award.

Our comedic production of Norm Foster's, "Office Hours" garnered Michael Serres a nomination for Best Sound Design. Also, Ruth Smith won the award for Best Stage Manager.

Congratulations to everyone involved in both of these award-winning productions, and thank you for your continued support and hard work. This marks the 8th time in just over thirty years that a Borelians show has won Best Production. It couldn't have been done without the amazing talent and devotion that comes from each of our members.
